

In this issue:

- Art and Design
- Science
- Mathematics
- Technology

Art and Design

On Thursday, Thames class made photomontages which are groups of images combined in an abstract way

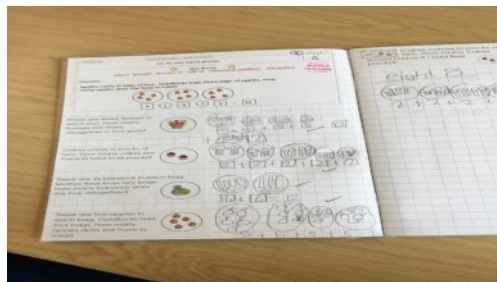

Science

In Eden class, they learnt how to reduce the use of water e.g. taking shorter showers and to wash their bikes and cars on grassy areas.

Mathematics

In Kealen's class, the children did multiplication and division to find answers

Computing

In Brent class they did computing in which they designed a house