GOODBYE YEAR 6

Friday 18th July 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

The end of term is upon us, which means it is time to say goodbye to our fantastic Year 6 children. We are so proud of them. They have achieved fantastic SATs results that are above national averages in every subject. They ended this week with a trip to the Globe theatre in London to watch a play called 'Rough Magic', a Macbeth spin-off. By all accounts it was a brilliant performance. We wish them all the best for the future. 'Be great Year 6' - in all that you do!

I would like to say a huge 'thank you', to all the staff at RPS for their hard work and dedication to the children. You are all amazing! I would also like to thank all of our volunteers who have supported the school this year, particularly Gary, Andreia, Parween, Tamana, Elizabeth, Yodit and Anisa.

And a final farewell to Michelle, Amber, Amina and Sam. We wish you all the best for the future and we will miss you.

End of term parties: Children in nursery to year 5 are able to wear party clothes on Tuesday, ready for their afternoon parties. Please donate £1 on Monday towards party food. Have a fantastic summer holiday! Lisa (HoS)

The Lion King

Our year 6 children pulled off an amazing production of the Lion King this week. They enthralled the school with their dress rehearsal on Monday and then wowed their parents with their performance after school on Tuesday.

It was impressive to witness how hard they had worked on learning their lines and on projecting their voices. An especial mention goes to those who sang duets and solos – you are incredibly brave and did a fantastic job.

The naughty hyenas were also a hit with their mischievous giggles.

Well done to everyone including the staff who worked so hard to make this happen. This was definitely a smash hit!!

Wandle Class Assembly

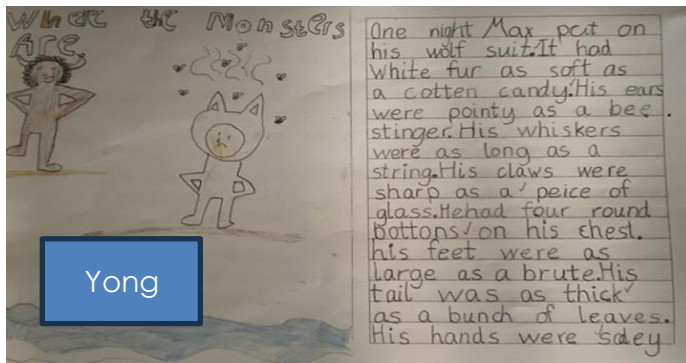

Wandle class shared some of their impressive learning this year. They have had some heavy topics which have included understanding what life was like for children in a workhouse during Victorian times. They have considered homelessness and poverty through books such as Street Child, The Little Match Girl and a Christmas Carol. They wanted to share some of these key issues in their assembly. They also presented consideration of the 'humanist philosophy'; The capacity to work for good, the importance of human well-being, and the pursuit of a meaningful life through reason, compassion, and social responsibility. They held up the 'golden rule' of treating others how you would like to be treated, as the code by which to lead one's life. They identified Barnardo as having lived by this principle and achieving significant improvement in the lives of others.

Whale Class Assembly

What a lot of learning Whale Class have done this year! They shared their learning about space and moon landings, their knowledge of the animal kingdom and how to look after plants to ensure their growth. Brilliant singing too! Great job, Whale class.

Annalise is so proud of her children's writing, she could not help but celebrate what they have achieved this year with me. Each child typically had 3 pages of wonderful prose to retell the story of 'Where the Wild Things Are'. I have included the first pages only to exhibit more children's star writing. Well done Octopus class. Fantastic work!

Year 6 Prom 2025

On Thursday, Year 6 had their final leaving party in the form of the Year 6 Prom. They arrived suited and booted and walked down the red carpet for a fun evening of party food, dancing and making memories with their friends. And they certainly had a good time!

A huge thank you to all the staff who helped deliver the prom, but an especial thank you to Karon and Erin who organised the events and worked so hard to make this a fun night for all.

Children's Book Recommendation

Child: Rosie (year 1)
Book: Kitty Quest Sinister Sister
Author: Phil Corbett

I love this book. It is one of a series and so far, this is my favourite. Princess Horribelle of Awfullia, visits her big sister who is called Perigold. Perigold is the heir to the throne of a 'bad' kingdom, but she never actually wanted to be bad herself, so she left it all behind. She reluctantly meets up with the princess. Will Horribelle's visit end in an innocent family reunion, or does she have something far more sinister up her sleeves?

I think this book is suitable for 6-year-olds.

Octopus	Zainab	Zainab has worked tremendously hard this year and should be very proud of her progress. She has impressed me with her strong phonics skills, which were reflected in her excellent phonics screening check results. Zainab is an independent writer who listens carefully to feedback and consistently uses it to improve her work. She has shown dedication in development of her reading and writing skills and has made outstanding progress as a result.
	Isaiah	Isaiah has really impressed me with his attitude toward learning this year. He has shown increased resilience, particularly when working independently in writing and art. Isaiah is a perfectionist and used to become frustrated when his outcomes didn't meet his expectations, often preventing him from having a go. However, he now approaches tasks—especially drawing—with growing confidence and a willingness to persevere, even when things don't go as planned. It's been wonderful to see his self-belief and creativity flourish.

It has been a pleasure to teach him, well done Hewad!

She approaches each new challenge with confidence and determination, never afraid to give challenges a go even when things are difficult. She listens carefully to feedback and takes it on board thoughtfully, using it to help her grow and improve in all areas of her learning. This thoughtful and reflective approach has made a huge difference in her progress this year. Iman contributes to class discussions with thoughtful comments, often delivered in her own unique and humorous way. We are all so proud of what she has achieved! Keep up the fantastic work, Iman!
	Mark	We're excited to acknowledge Mark for the amazing progress he has made in his maturity and dedication to his work. He has really shined as a writer, maintaining a steady pace and consistent style. His impressive use of punctuation and ability to meet success criteria really showcase his skills. Her warmth and generosity have made our classroom a happier, more supportive place. Well done on a truly brilliant term!

Achievement Awards Summer 2025

Wandle	Chyanne	Chyanne has shown remarkable dedication to improving her mathematical skills this half term, particularly when preparing for the 'Times tables Multiplication Check'. Once she set her personal goal to improve her automaticity of these facts, there was no stopping her. I have been impressed with her work ethic in class. It is easy to do well when learning is quickly accessible, but it takes an enduring and growth mindset to continue to persevere when learning is challenging and difficult. Another area of amazing progress is Chyanne's writing. She has steadfastly worked on becoming an eloquent writer and progress is clear. She expresses herself using unique combinations of vocabulary and a wide range of literary devices, which is always a joy to read.
	Ava	Ava has grown from strength to strength this term. Being successful starts in your mind and in your thoughts. Ava's last term as a Year 4 student has seen her really understand that she can do anything she puts her mind to. She has faced her own personal obstacles and proved to herself that she can do more than she thought she could. This 'can-do' attitude has been demonstrated across the curriculum; in English, she is writing more independently; in P.E., trying skills she hadn't tried before and in R.E., thinking about her own opinions and expressing them. She raises her hand more often and she participates even if she is unsure. I am immensely proud of her and feel this is the beginning of a new chapter.
Severn	Bintu	Bintu has been an integral member of Severn class. Throughout this year, she has displayed outstanding resilience and commitment to advancing her own learning in all areas of the curriculum and has made admirable progress as a result. As well as excellent execution of various roles in the wider school community, her optimistic demeanour and readiness to embrace any given task has been much appreciated by her peers and teacher. Thank you and well done!
	Lucy	Year 6 has been a rewarding one for Lucy as she has been unfailingly diligent in all aspects of her own and other's learning. Her positive attitude to all tasks is vastly commendable and really encapsulates the essence of a model learner. Her own excellent progress is enhanced by her affability when peer mentoring children in Severn class and other year groups. Thank you and well done!
Trent	Georgina	Georgina has made superb progress this term, particularly in Reading and Maths. She is always keen to hear how she can improve and puts those changes into place immediately. Even when she is attempting something really challenging, she doesn't give up and shows great resilience until she achieves her goal. This has meant that she makes progress quickly. We are so proud of you Georgina.
	Jonathan	Jonathan is a role model in class and can always be relied upon to do the right thing. He confidently shares his excellent ideas, collaborates well in a group and is focused during his independent work. He is always ambitious and sets high standards for himself. For this reason, I always look forward to seeing his work! Thank you for demonstrating such excellent learning behaviour Jonathan. We have been lucky to have you in our class.
